Mr. Terry Freeze
U.S. Department of Defense
Office of Inspector General

Re: Whistleblower/Retaliation Investigation, Major Christian "Kit"
Martin, Case Number 20150408-030726

Mr. Freeze,

NCFM submitted the original complaint on March 29, 2015, that prompted this investigation, and continues to investigate this case. A copy of that complaint letter has been included for reference.

NCFM is involved in similar cases involving false allegations in the United States Military. The persecution of Major Christian "Kit" Martin is by far the most egregious example of which we are aware. Unlawful command influence, and prosecutorial maladministration and derildiction of duty, involve serious and numerous criminal acts.

Because of the magnitude of illegal acts committed, we request that you forward our complaint to the United States Attorney General for additional investigation focusing on Major General Mark Stammer, then acting commander of the 101st Airborne Division, and the JAG prosecutors involved in this case; Major Jacob Bashore, Major Jenny Sue Schlack-White, and Captain James Garrett.

Thank you for whatever assistance you can provide.

Respectfully,

President, NCFM
