Re: State Bar Complaint of Attorney Jacob Bashore
Letter of Support for Save Our Heroes'

To the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility, and the U.S.
Department of Justice, Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division,

The National Coalition for Men (NCFM), is a 501(c)(3) educational nonprofit corporation established in 1977 and is the nation's oldest men's human rights organization. Our directors, advisors, liaisons, and members are men and women from a wide variety of professions across the globe, including active duty service members, and veterans. You can learn more about NCFM, our interests, activities, and numerous accomplishments by visiting our website, www.ncfm.org.

NCFM is committed to the removal of gender-based stereotypes, especially as they adversely impact boys, men, their families, and the women who love them, including but not limited to, issues involving the criminal justice, family court, and military judicial systems.

NCFM is intimately familiar with the court-martial case of the U.S. v. Major Christian Martin, and fully aware of the injustices and egregious numerous examples of prosecutorial misconduct surrounding that case.

National Coalition for Men Letter of Support – Save Our Heroes’
Formal Complaint of Attorney Jacob Bashore

NCFM is in full support of the complaint filed by Save Our Heroes’ involving Attorney Jacob D. Bashore, Tennessee State Bar #025256, filed by the National Coalition for Men.

On August 12, 2016, NCFM filed a complaint concerning Attorney Bashore with the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility and the USDOJ, Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division. Subsequent correspondence resulted in the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility temporarily, suspending further action on that complaint. Since another case of prosecutorial misconduct has surfaced, NCFM respectfully requests that an inquiry is warranted with respect to our previous complaint.

Pursuant to normal business practices, NCFM respectfully requests that each recipient acknowledge recipient of this correspondence by responding to NCFM President Harry Crouch via email, president@ncfm.org or via U.S. Mail.

Respectfully Submitted,

President
