The disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest and will contribute significantly to the public's understanding of the functions of the Office of the Attorney General. The information sought is related to news gathering purposes and will not be used for commercial purposes.

The Kentucky Open Records Act requires a response time within three business days. If the records requested will take longer than that time period, please contact NCFM with information about when NCFM might expect copies of the requested records.

If any of the requested records are denied, please cite each specific exemption that justifies the refusal to release the information and notify NCFM of the appeal procedures available under the law.

The National Coalition for Men

The National Coalition For Men (NCFM) is a 501(c)(3) educational nonprofit corporation established in 1977 and the nation's oldest men's human rights organization. Our members are men and women from a wide variety of professions across the globe, including, educators, medical professionals, attorneys, and retired law enforcement officers.

NCFM is committed to the removal of gender-based stereotypes, especially as they adversely impact boys, men, their families, and the women who love them, including, issues involving the criminal justice, and family court systems.

You can learn more about NCFM, our interests, activities, and numerous accomplishments by visiting our website, www.ncfm.org.

The requested records can be mailed to the address provided or via electronic mail, president@ncfm.org.

Respectfully,
Harry Crouch, President
